The Ride of Their Lives

“Across the Great Divide” – The story of Augusta and Adeline Van Buren, two intrepid sisters who rode cross-country on motorcycles in 1916, will be presented by Bob Van Buren at the next meeting of the Northborough Historical Society. The Van Buren sisters, denied the right to vote or serve in the military, set out to show what women could accomplish by completing a 5,550-mile motorcycle journey from New York to California.

Join us, to hear a story of courage, dedication, and patriotism.
