

Organ Concert Series

The 1874 George Stevens pipe organ has been recently restored by the Andover Organ Company of Waltham. Funding has been provided by the Community Preservation Act.

Please celebrate with us by attending our concert series in memory of Robert Kennerly. Performances start at 2:00 p.m. at the Northborough Historical Society, 50 Main Street, the former Baptist Church. Free will offering

September 15 - Permelia Singer Sears

organist and violist. She will play several organ pieces and ensemble pieces with husband David at the organ and daughter Rebecca on violin.

September 21 - Pay-to-Play fund-raiser

Your chance to try playing our pipe organ for a $2/donation. Supervision will be provided.

September 22 - Mike Westberry

Organist from Trinity Church will play a selection of pieces and at 2:00 a Student Recital with students from the Pakachoag Music School and the surrounding area.

September 29 - Sing-A-Long with Allyn Phelps III

at the Organ with old time hymns and modern pieces

October 6 - Glen Campbell

Organist at Church of the Nativity, Northborough 2013